As purveyors of fine stubble-funk, prairie-disco, reggae-rock and northern soul, Saskatoon based band Absofunkinlutely (aka AFL) are a growing concern in the Saskatchewan music scene.

Their sunny tunes with crafty lyrics keep dance floors moving and the vibe fun, light and breezy everywhere they play. For those who prefer the pocket deep, the Hammond organ fat, the bottom end bouncy and the rhythm guitar a bit sassy, AFL is a cool spicy Caesar after a hot day out working in the dirt.

This prairie born, winter hardened four piece outfit, with vaunted horn section in tow, are set to be spreading their catchy sound across western Canada. The AFL blue collar, workman's approach will deliver the danceable groove to your stage with little fuss and certainly no delay.
