

Kathleen Claire

Kathleen Claire has been singing since before she could talk, and performing her own original work as a solo artist since 2006. In the summer of 2010, enabled by the 10k20 grant given by Rawlco Radio, Kathleen completed her debut album, Lyrics of a Woman, releasing it on March 25, 2011.

While Kathleen lives and studies abroad, Saskatchewan remains her home, and one of her greatest joys is stepping back into the great legacy of singer-songwriter culture that is a hallmark of her prairie province.

She has recently performed in Vienna as one of several warm-up acts for American-based band Switchfoot, and has plans to perform in Switzerland, Italy, Ireland and various locations in Austria over the coming months. In addition, she is currently starting preliminary work on her sophomore album, which she hopes to begin recording in early 2013.
